The Studio is the newest indoor golf training facility on the North Shore. Located in Deerfield on the corner of Lake Cook Road and Pfingsten Road, this private Studio offers the most serious golfer a place to work on their game year round. Dr. Jeffrey Fishbein, nationally renown sport psychologist and Brett Packee, PGA Professional and 2008 Illinois PGA Teacher of the Year and founder of CORE Golf, have teamed up to create a 2000 square foot state-of-the-art indoor golf training facility for members only. Members will have access to The Studio at their convenience and the opportunity to be trained on the various computer software programs to allow for self-instruction. In addition, members will be able to attend a variety of seminars and training programs, entertain clients and have corporate functions, and ultimately enjoy a world-class facility to improve their golf games. Those who play the game of golf at high levels realize that the winter months are critical for training and making positive changes to their game. The Studio will allow for instruction on both the physical and mental aspects of golf during the so-called "off-season," so that when spring arrives, your game does also.

Enjoy The Studio!
